8.6. Any Leave availed by the candidate other than the eligible leave (30 days per year) shall lead to extension of DNB /FNB training. The training institute has to forward such requests to NBE along with the leave records of the candidate since his/her joining and supporting documents (if any) through the Head of the Institute with their recommendation/comments. NBE shall consider such requests on merit provided the seat is not carried over and compromise with training of existing trainees in the Department.

8.7. Any extension of DNB/FNB training beyond the scheduled completion date of training is permissible only under extra-ordinary circumstances with prior approval of NBE. Such extension is neither automatic nor shall be granted as a matter of routine.

8.8. DNB/FNB trainees are required to complete their training by a prescribed cutoff date (as per information bulletin of Exit exam) for being eligible to DNB/FNB Exit examination.

8.9. The eligibility for DNB/FNB Final Examination shall be determined strictly in accordance with the criteria prescribed in the respective information bulletin.

9. The concerned Heads of Accredited Hospitals/Institutes and DNB Program coordinators must ensure that the leave guidelines as prescribed by NBE are strictly adhered to; failure to comply these guidelines and sanctioning leave beyond purview of NBE leave norms may have an adverse impact on the renewal of accreditation.

10. Thesis/Dissertation

10.1 Thesis submission and its acceptance is a mandatory requirement towards partial fulfillment of award of DNB degree certificate. It is essential for all DNB candidates to submit their thesis within the prescribed time limit.

10.2 DNB candidates are required to submit their thesis before the cut off date which shall be 30th June of same year for candidates appearing for their scheduled December DNB Final/Exit examination.

N.B:This is computer generated registration letter, contains 3 pages. No signature is required.

MAHAJAN AVANI RAJENDRA/ENT/128-30107-181-218364/29.05.2018/3 Years

Similarly candidates who shall be appearing in their scheduled June DNB final/exit examination shall be required to submit their theses by 31st of preceding December.

10.3 In case the candidate fails to submit his/her thesis within the cut off date, the result of the examination of the candidate will not be declared and kept withheld. Further that the Provisional pass certificate of a candidate will not be issued under any circumstances if the thesis has not been accepted.

10.4 The concerned Heads of Accredited Hospitals/Institutes and DNB Program coordinators and Thesis Supervisors must ensure that the thesis are submitted by the candidates within the prescribed cut off date, failure to comply may have an adverse impact on the renewal of accreditation.

Yours faithfully

Your Performance Compared to Other Examinees

The chart below represents the distribution of scores for examinees from US and Canadian medical schools taking Step 1 for the first time between January 1, 2018 and December 31, 2018. Reported scores range from 1-300 with a mean of 231 and a standard deviation of 20.

If you tested repeatedly under the same conditions on a different set of items covering the same content, without learning or forgetting, your score would fall within one standard error of the estimate (SEE) of your current score two-thirds of the time. The SEE on this exam is 8 points.

Your Relative Strengths and Weaknesses

The boxes below indicate areas of relatively lower or higher performance in each content area within the Step 1 examination. A box in the "Higher" column indicates that your performance in that area was higher than your overall Step 1 performance shown on page 1. A box in the "Same" column indicates that your performance in that area was similar to or the same as your overall Step 1 performance. A box in the "Lower" column indicates that your performance in that area was lower than your overall Step 1 performance. The percentage range of items from each content area on the Step 1 examination is indicated below.

This information can be used to identify areas of strength and weakness to guide future study. Because the exam is highly integrative, USMLE recommends reviewing all content areas if retaking the test.
